An introduction to Lowe Financial Group – Risk Insurance Specialists

From our establishment in 1986, Lowe Financial Group (LFG) have specialised in Risk Insurance advice. The protection of our client's financial future is important to us, which is why we work in close partnership with Australia's leading insurers to ensure that our clients receive the best cover, appropriate to their needs.

As a three-generation family business, our ongoing commitment to protecting the lives and financial security of our client's continues to thrive. Our director, 'Ged' (Gerard Lowe) joined the company in 1988 to work alongside his father and LFG's founder, Peter Lowe. Today, Ged is proud to be joined by two of his children in the business, along with a supportive team whose dedication to client care is second-to-none.

We assist our clients in the areas of:

- Income Protection – to provide you with a continuing income in the event of an illness or injury preventing you from work.
- Life Cover – to provide a lump-sum in the event of your death, that may be used to repay debts, cover final expenses, or provide ongoing support to surviving loved ones.
- Total & Permanent Disability (TPD) – to provide you with a lump-sum in the event of total and permanent disablement preventing you from work.
- Trauma / Critical Illness insurance – to provide you a lump-sum in the event of a traumatic health condition, a financial aid allowing you to focus on recovery.

We are proud to be a company that doesn't 'set and forget', as transactional service isn't our thing. Beyond our initial discussions and the implementation of the appropriate policies, we offer our client base ongoing reviews to ensure your portfolio remains appropriate and can be reached Monday to Friday for any inquiries.

Most importantly, if the time ever comes, we provide one-on-one claims assistance to allow our clients to focus on recovery while we deal with the intricacies of the claims process. Based on real client feedback, this service alleviates stress during what is undoubtedly a challenging time – and is something which we would never charge for.

Lowe Financial Group is extremely proud of the strong working relationship and valued association that it has shared with the Lusi & Co team over the past 18-years, and the opportunity that LFG has had to ensure Lusi & Co clients have been provided a professional and considered service. As this relationship continues, LFG would like to offer all Lusi & Co clients an opportunity to meet with our team and review your insurance requirements at no cost (we don't believe in any hidden fees!).

If you would like to discuss your insurance options with the team at LFG, please do not hesitate to let us know and this can be arranged a time that is convenient for you.

Together, Lowe Financial Group & Lusi and Co look forward to protecting your financial futures.
